Director on the Spiritual Journey

Jamal Rahman

Jamal Rahman is a Sufi Sheikh, from Seattle. He is very active in interfaith dialogue as well as spiritual development (see his site, www.jamalrahman.com). His work has been featured in the New York Times, CBS, and PBS. Jamal has written several books. His latest book, Getting to the Heart of Interfaith: The Eye-Opening, Hope-Filled Friendship of a Pastor, a Rabbi and a Sheikh, is published by Skylight Paths Publishing, Woodstock, Vermont.

Jamal presents the teachings, history and practices of Islam in a way that is not only accessible but engaging for western non-Muslim audiences.

Carol A. Fournier, NCC

Carol is director and co-founder of the Silver Dove Institute. She trains spiritual directors, counselors, ministers and health care providers internationally. Carol is a spiritual director, pastoral care specialist and counselor. Engaged in pre-doctoral research in Spirituality and Pastoral Ministry, she has a Masters in Counseling with a specialty in Spirituality. Carol serves as faculty at the University of Vermont, Saint Michael's College and various Spiritual Life Centers. She is recognized for her guidance and leadership in spiritual and religious issues as well as interfaith initiatives by the spiritual direction, counseling and higher education communities. An author and retreat director, Carol has a private practice in Vermont.

These events are free and open to the public.
